FELONY GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. The purpose of this bail schedule is to fix an amount upon which a person who is arrested without a warrant may be released from custody prior to appearance in court. If a person is arrested pursuant to an arrest warrant, bail is set at the amount of the warrant.

B. After a defendant's first appearance in court, the amount of bail will lie within the sound discretion of the judicial officer before whom the defendant appeared and may be greater or less than the amount set forth in this schedule, subject to the provisions of Penal Code section 1275 and controlling case law, including In re Humphrey (2021), 11 Cal. 5th 135. This schedule may also be used by a magistrate in fixing bail pursuant to Penal Code section 815a at the time an arrest warrant is issued, the amount of which lies in the sound discretion of the magistrate.

C. Prevailing legislation places the burden on law enforcement agencies to notify the magistrate if the scheduled bail is not adequate for the crime. Penal Code section 1269c provides that if a defendant is arrested without a warrant for a bailable felony offense or for a misdemeanor violation of a domestic violence restraining order, and a peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the schedule is insufficient to ensure the defendant's appearance or to ensure the protection of a victim, or family member of a victim, of domestic violence, the police officer shall prepare a declaration and file it with the magistrate requesting higher bail.

D. Persons not entitled to be released on bail are those charged with:

1. Capital crimes (i.e. murder with special circumstance), when the facts are evident or the presumption great. Penal Code section 1270.5 & California Constitution, Article 1, Section 12(a);

2. Felony offenses involving acts of violence against another person when the facts are evident or the presumption great (i.e., substantial evidence of guilt) and the court finds based upon clear and convincing evidence that there is a substantial likelihood the person's release would result in great bodily harm to others; or

3. Felony offenses when the facts are evident or the presumption great (i.e. substantial evidence of guilt) and the court finds based upon clear and convincing evidence that the person has threatened another with great bodily harm and there is a substantial likelihood that the person would carry out the threat if released. California Constitution, Article 1, Section 12(c).

E. The bail schedule shall contain a general clause for those offenses not specifically listed in the bail schedule. For all felony offenses and enhancements not listed, the bail amount shall be set at:

$15,000

Top term Life/LWOP – NO BAIL

F. Penal Code section 1270.1 prohibits the release of an arrestee on bail in an amount OTHER THAN THAT SET FORTH ON THE BAIL SCHEDULE prior to a hearing in open court for:

1. Violent felonies as described in Penal Code section 667.5 (c), but not 460(a);

2. Serious felonies as described in Penal Code section 1192.7(c) (including those listed in Penal Code section 1192.8); and

3. Violations of Penal Code sections 136.l(c), 243(e)(l), 262, 273.5, 273.6, felony 422 and 646.9.

G. Violation of Probation/Mandatory Supervision/Post Release Supervision/Parole – ARREST:

1. Arrest without warrant shall have NO BAIL if offense is for violating the terms of mandatory supervision, post release community service or parole.

2. BAIL will be set at NO BAIL if the offense is for violating the terms of felony probation.

3. BAIL will be set at $15,000 if offense is for violating the terms of misdemeanor probation.

H. The bail limit for multiple offenses shall be established as follows:

1. When a defendant is booked on two or more charges arising from the same course of conduct on the same occasion, bail shall be the amount set for the charge having the highest bail plus any enhancement.

2. When a defendant is booked on a felony with a misdemeanor or infraction, the misdemeanor/infraction bail should not be considered.
